

Photo by Nancy Porter. Caption info: Nancy Porter (Iowa) of the Peace and Justice Caucus, and Justin Hughey (Hawaii; King Kamehameha III School), who submitted a New Business Item at the National Education Association Representative Assembly (Washington, D.C.) Drafted by the Peace Committee (Hawaii) and approved by the 8,000 delegates, the result is that the NEA will now encourage its 3,000,000 members to participate in and support the United Nations International Day of Peace, September 21.